RIDE RULES

1. ABSOLUTELY DO NOT visibly use alcohol. Save the drinking for after. And no glass allowed.
2. ABSOLUTELY DO NOT arrive naked. Carry some clothing options.
3. PARTICIPANTS must show person-powered wheels. No exceptions.
4. SPECTATORS go watch at gawker spot. And don't drive. Wrigley Field, Addison/Sheffield-Clark, after 10pm. KEEP THE COURSE CLEAR! Wave and cheer and applaud from the sides and joy will be multiplied.
5. No photos before/after ride except by authorized few. Assume however by participating that you may be photographed anywhere anytime.
6. Exposed goodies may target you for ticketing. Do so at your own risk, or be minimally covered or painted.
7. For First Amendment protection, maintain the message: "less gas more ass", "burns fat not oil", "nude not crude", "naked is how vulnerable I am sharing roads with cars"
8. If confronted by police obey commands, comply, do not escalate, do not argue. If told to put something on simply do so immediately. And thank them en-route for their help.
9. This ride is monitored by National Lawyers Guild volunteers who can serve as witnesses in case of trouble. If arrested call the NLG office at 312-913-0039
10. We are "Celebrating freedom from oil, and the beauty of people." Hostile acts are completely uncool towards anyone not directly threatening rider safety. Let security handle problems.
11. DO NOT LITTER!
